Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for your letter concerning my new assignment. It will be a tough one; I will do the best I can in it. The future will have its uncertainties and problems, but I am confident that the opportunities will outnumber the difficulties.

STATINTL

Thank you very much for taking the time to see [REDACTED]. He told me about your visit and I know that he and I both gained immeasurably from it. Incidentally, I know that you need not be told, but the Rockefeller Commission and its Staff was deeply impressed by you and your views during your appearances here earlier last year.

As we move into the future, I do want to be in touch with you. All of us can profit from your advice and counsel.

All the best to you and Rita. Be sure to give us a call at any time you are in Washington.

Faithfully yours,

[REDACTED]
E. H. Knoche
